

Bridging London

Connecting Londoners to Christ

Christians are the Minority in the UK.

“Secularization has permeated all reaches of Great Britain” says Anglican Bishop of London, Richard Chartres. The United Kingdom is no longer a Christian nation. Churches close on a regular basis and most who live on the island nation no longer see the Church as having a positive affect on the culture. Bishop Chartres has also been quoted as saying, “Bible-believing Christians in the UK have fallen from a majority status and are being marginalized, closely resembling what happened to the Roman Catholic minority following the 16th Century English Reformation.”

The opportunities for the Gospel in London are seemingly endless. We believe God is preparing for a huge revival to hit the city. With so many individuals from all over the world now living in London, the possibility to reach the world from London are also great. Exciting times lie ahead for London. Please pray for The Reeves Family, Justin Rhoades and our family as we all prepare to reach London. Our team will hopefully all be in London next year. Thanks for your support and for taking part of our ministry.
